Dulles Believes That Castro
May Shoot to Miss U-2's

Special to The New York Times

NORFOLK, Va., May 1—

Allen Dulles, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, said here Friday that he believed Premier Fidel Castro might order Cuban gunners to fire at American U-2 planes and purposely miss them.

Mr. Dulles criticized the Johnson Administration for advertising the continuance of surveillance flights over Cuba.

He said that shooting and missing would save Dr. Castro's face while avoiding reprisals by the United States.
